May's Employee Spotlight

Sheila Rodrigue Haydel, known to us as Sheila or Ms. Sheila and to her grandkids as "Mama" and her nieces and nephews as "Tyla," was born in Vacherie and resides in Thibodaux. Sheila, a widow, was married to Alvin Haydel. She has two children. Scott, her son, lives in Houston. He is a payroll specialist and travels around the country writing payroll programs. Her daughter, Rebecca, and son-in-law, Lawrence (Bubba) Pizzo, live in Thibodaux. Rebecca (Becky) and Bubba have three children: Abigail, 19, who is currently a Nicholls State University student; Joshua, who is 13, will be going into 8th grade at E.D. White next school year; and Jacob, 8, is currently at student at St. Joseph Elementary School.

Sheila started working as Administrative Assistant at the Manor in September 1995. Prior to working at the Manor she was nursing secretary to the Director of Nursing at Heritage Manor of Thibodaux and also worked as a secretary in a sugar house office.

When she is not at the Manor, Sheila enjoys gardening, embroidery, beading wedding dresses, and reading in her spare time. Her family is the MOST important thing in her life. She has two brothers and two sisters still living. She is very close to her youngest sister, Charlene. They were the two youngest children in her family of seven and "they shared everything." And of course, her children and grandchildren make LIFE WORTH LIVING. In her words, "there is nothing like getting a phone call from a grandson asking how my day was?"

Sheila values her relationships with the residents and her co-workers. She loves being able to help a resident whether it is mailing a package or buying stamps. SHEILA'S GREATEST JOY IS BEING ABLE TO HELP PEOPLE.

We know Sheila will be retiring soon. We are blessed to have her part of our St. Joseph Manor family for over 21 years. She will be surely be missed!

Thank You Sheila! We Love You! May God Bless You On Your Retirement and Always!

Cora Lee Bourgeois Smith

Cora Lee Bourgeois Smith, better known as “Co Co” to her grandchildren, was born 100 years ago on June 21, 1916. She was the daughter of Emile and Bridgette Bourgeois who in turn raised ten (10) children of which Mother was the eighth. She and her younger brother Godfrey still remain.

Mother had been born in the St. Charles community where she graduated from St. Charles High School then went on to earn a Bachelor’s Degree from Louisiana State University (LSU), May 30, 1938. However, although her degree was in French and English, she taught fourth grade twenty-five (25) years and was given credit for a total of thirty (30) years as she never missed a day of school in all of those many years.

Cora Lee retired from teaching at the early age of fifty-five (55) years and has loved every minute of it. During those special years, she has enjoyed playing bridge, traveling, working crossword puzzles and watching Bill O’Reilly.

Mother has now lived about two years at St. Joseph Manor. She looks forward to seeing her daughters, and having lunch with her “Politz friends”; but, however, her greatest joy of all has been having Charlotte, Troy’s widow, bring her grandchild Noah to visit each afternoon after school. Thank you Charlotte, and of course my brother Troy, for all that you have done for Mother through many years.

Mothers’ daughters appreciate and also say thank you to the many family members, particularly Mary and Francis Bourgeois; and friends, especially her new friends at St. Joseph Manor, who spend precious time with her. Cora Lee has a sharp mind and remembers, to this day, the names and faces of the many people she has met and continues to meet during her joyous stay at St. Joseph Manor. Thank you to the outstanding staff of well trained personnel who work under Ann Thibodaux, Director, and specifically to Arlene Daigle, Hiram and Joyce Torres, Bill Pitre and Helen Hebert for being especially kind to our Mother whom we love so dearly.

Very sincerely,
Cathy, Vicki and Toni
