November Employee Spotlight

Shantea Shanell Henderson, nicknamed “Shiny,” was born and raised in Thibodaux. She has an 8-month-old son, K-Von. She attended South Central Louisiana Technical College where she earned her Certified Nursing Assistant certificate.

After becoming a CNA, Shantea began working at the Manor part-time on November 19, 2010.

She began working full-time on the 4:00 PM to 12:00 AM shift on February 1, 2012. She values the residents and loves her job. St. Joseph Manor is her first employer.

On Shantea’s days off, she decorates for baby showers. She loves working out at the gym. Her favorite thing in life is being a mother because she loves & adores her son K-Von.

Shantea values the residents and goes beyond her duties to make sure all residents are happy and comfortable in their home here at the Manor. We love you and may God continue to bless you and your son.
