Knickers!

A "Brief" Comedy...by Sarah Quick

Sunday, October 22 @ 2:00 PM
Bus departs at 1:30 PM

The paper mill that long propped up the economy of Elliston Falls has been shut down, sending the town spiraling into an economic depression. When a chipper but overwhelmed tourism officer arrives to lend a hand, she discovers an unlikely business partnership in the three brassy friends that make up the local chapter of Weight Watchers. Could the ladies' plan for a custom underwear business (complete with giant knickers as a roadside attraction) really be the town's salvation? This hilariously irreverent comedy celebrates determination, entrepreneurial spirit, and the willingness to bare it all.

Employee Spotlight

Katherine Alice Mc Nair Francise, Kathy, was born on Staten Island in New York but lived most of her life in Tampa, Florida where her husband, Jamie, was fortunate enough to meet her. They lived in Tampa until 2007, when the opportunity to move to LA where her husband is originally from. They have been married for 23 years & have a 6-year-old daughter, Jolie.

Kathy has been the Food Service director for 3 years. Her previous work experience includes working in the hospital & long-term care facilities as a Certified Dietary Manager for 26 years. But this was not always Kathy's plans. She originally studied to be a teacher for children of missionaries but her father became ill and she moved home to help take care of him.

Kathy loves to spend time with family, especially traveling whenever they have the opportunity even if it is only a weekend getaway. St. Joseph Manor is her second family. It is truly a pleasure for her to work with such kind people & she realizes most people do not have the privilege of having a Christian oriented work environment. It is very rewarding to see the residents, their guests, and the staff pleased with the work her & her staff do in the Food Service Department. She is thankful for the opportunity to serve you daily.
